The Youth of America: The Future of the American Legion

For over a century, the American Legion has stood as a pillar of support for veterans, their families, and communities across the United States. Founded in 1919, this organization has played a crucial role in advocating for veterans' rights, fostering patriotism, and promoting programs that benefit American society. However, as the landscape of military service and veteran affairs continues to evolve, so must the American Legion. To ensure its longevity and continued impact, the organization must invest in and engage with the youth of America—the future leaders, servicemembers, and veterans who will carry forward its mission.

A New Generation of Patriots

Today's youth, including Junior ROTC members, young veterans, and children of veterans, are the next stewards of American values. Many young Americans are deeply patriotic and eager to serve their country, whether in the military, through community service, or by advocating for veterans' issues. The American Legion must actively welcome and mentor these young individuals, helping them understand the importance of service, sacrifice, and civic responsibility.

TO REACH OUT

Programs like Boys State, Girls State, and the Oratorical Contest have long been effective in educating youth about government, leadership, and public service. Expanding and modernizing these programs to align with the interests and concerns of younger generations can help build a pipeline of future Legionnaires who are invested in the organization's mission.

Engaging Young Veterans

As World War II, Korean War, and Vietnam War veterans age, the American Legion must prioritize engaging younger veterans from the Gulf War, Iraq, and Afghanistan conflicts. These individuals bring fresh perspectives, experiences, and a deep understanding of the challenges facing today's military personnel and veterans.

Younger veterans often seek organizations that are adaptable, inclusive, and actively addressing modern issues such as mental health, employment opportunities, and support for military families. The Legion can appeal to them by expanding its outreach efforts, embracing technology, and creating more opportunities for involvement in local and national initiatives.

Modernizing for the Future

To remain relevant and appealing to younger generations, the American Legion must continue evolving.

This includes:

- 1. Enhancing Digital Engagement – Many young people and veterans rely on social media, websites, and apps for information and community engagement. Strengthening the Legion's digital presence can help attract and retain younger members.
- 2. Promoting Inclusivity – The military has become more diverse, and the Legion must reflect this diversity by welcoming all eligible members, regardless of background, gender, or service era.
- 3. Focusing on Key Issues – Mental health, post-service career support, and veteran homelessness are critical issues for younger veterans. The Legion's continued advocacy and support in these areas will resonate with them.
- 4. Strengthening Community Involvement – Engaging youth through volunteerism, mentorship programs, and family-friendly events can create lasting connections between young people and the Legion.

Conclusion

The American Legion's future depends on its ability to connect with and inspire the next generation. By engaging young people—both those who will serve in the military and those who will support veterans—the organization can ensure its continued impact for decades to come. The youth of America are not just the future of the nation; they are the future of the American Legion. Now is the time to empower them, involve them, and pass the torch of service to the next generation.

As of 3/21/2025 the department reached 86.07% of the desired goal of 95% membership levels for April 9th. Department retention rate is hovering right around the 83rd percentile also. We have 30 Posts with 100% Membership goal, but only 82.69% (85.18% without 462) or so retention, let's close that back door. Kudos to those that have attained 100% goal, many are on the cusp only needing 1 or 2 or 3 new members or renewals to get there.

The Text-em-All experience: I am still interacting with some that received the text. A few are requesting transfers, some still want to know what happened to the dues they paid. More importantly, I have a few that have requested to be relocated to the Capital Hill Post. Though they may not be happy with their current situation, they feel a sense of loyalty to the American Legion, and though not an active participant, they want to support the TAL.

Department still has a bucket load of Legionnaires that have not renewed from 2024. We have plenty of work to do. Please pick up the phone, text, snail mail a letter to help close that drafty door.

Though no one made it to 90%, our next goal of 95% is 9 April. Let's look under every stone and carpet for renewals and new members. Let's get a solid 90% before the National Commander visits.

A little MyLegion.org homework for the Posts. Please print a copy of your post roster, give it a sweeping review and fill in the voids, Addresses/E-mail Addresses/Phone Numbers (preferable cell, not land line). Good, accurate information will assist you in the future.

Still Can't say this enough: Got your permissions to work membership on MyLegion.org? If not, let us know, we can help. Before you call, make sure the Post Commander and Adjutant form is current. 27% have not submitted this form.

What is Membership doing to help: The M&PA Committee has authorized the release of the New Member Tool Kit "Your Guide to Welcoming New Members" Each membership team will receive a copy at DEC. You can download your own copy from the Dispatch. Need assistance, give me a call.

POST DATA REPORTS - You in the game for the Retention contest? Your PDR must be turned into Department by April 15th.

The Spirit of Americanism: Honoring Our Heroes and Preserving Our History April is a significant month for American Legionnaires, as it marks the anniversary of the American Legion's founding in 1919. As we reflect on our organization's rich history, we're reminded of the importance of Americanism and the values that have guided our nation since its inception. Americanism is about more than just patriotism; it's about preserving the principles of freedom, justice, and democracy that have made our country great. It's about honoring the sacrifices of our veterans and their families, who have selflessly served to protect our way of life. As Legionnaires, we have a unique opportunity to promote Americanism in our communities.

We can do this by:

1. Supporting veterans' services: Providing assistance to veterans, their families, and survivors through programs like the American Legion's Veterans Affairs & Rehabilitation Committee.
2. Promoting patriotism: Organizing events like Memorial Day and Veterans Day ceremonies, flag-raising ceremonies, and patriotic parades.
3. Educating youth: Sponsoring programs like the American Legion's Oratorical Contest, which encourages high school students to learn about the Constitution and develop public speaking skills.
4. Preserving history: Partnering with local historical societies and museums to preserve the stories of our nation's heroes and the history of our organization. As we celebrate our founding anniversary this April, let us recommit ourselves to the principles of Americanism. Let us continue to honor our heroes, preserve our history, and promote the values that have made our nation great. Together, we can ensure that the spirit of Americanism continues to thrive for generations to come.

Bob Jerdan DVC 24-25

Americanism Chairman 24-25

Candidate for Department Sr Vice Commander 25-26

We are moving into Spring and warmer weather. The committee is looking forward to seeing more great things from our post across the Department. Please keep in mind the different Community Service awards. With St. Patrick's days just behind us and different parades and events taking place at our post we look forward to seeing many AL Whites submissions. The committee is still looking for submissions for the Pendill award, Conway award and the Mulkern award. The committee is looking forward to continue meeting and review the great things post are doing throughout the Department. Please goto our website www.masslegion.oprg for additional information and forms.

Ryan Howe

Chairman Community Service

Greetings, American Legion Family. I hope this edition finds you all in good spirits as Winter is behind us and Spring is finally here.

Our marketing partnership with The Springfield Thunderbirds and "The Veteran of The Game" partnership continues to be a great success in building brand awareness of our organization. Many thanks are due to all who have helped present the coins at home games and to all who have staffed our numerous information tables as well.

A new online 50/50 Department Raffle will be starting soon. Please, watch for details in this publication as well as Facebook and the department website, MassLegion.org. Proceeds will benefit the department youth programs.

The traditional convention sweepstakes will be held again this year and drawn on the last day of Department Convention in June. Tickets will be mailed shortly. Please consider donations to both as your contribution helps the department and you can win some good cash prizes.

Last but not least, I am pleased to report that our department's yearly royalty check from Emblem Sales has been received. The amount this year was $3,813.64. This royalty is based upon purchases from Emblem Sales shipped to Massachusetts. This amount is by far the highest I have seen as chairman and tops last year's check by almost $700. Thanks to all who made this possible by purchasing Legion clothing and items.

In closing and as always, if you have any marketing ideas big or small that fit within our financial reach and capabilities, do not hesitate to contact the marketing committee.

Happy Easter to all and your loved ones!

At the annual Washington DC Legion Conference, I had the opportunity to sit in on a presentation of several staff from the Veterans Health Administration. They are doing some great work. This is a summary from a report that was available.

VHA's Office of Healthcare Innovation and Learning unites the VHA Innovation Ecosystem (VHA IE), the Simulation Learning, Evaluation, Assessment, and Research Network (SimLEARN), the VHA Office of Advanced Manufacturing (VHA OAM), and the Center for Care and Payment Innovation (CCPI). Embrace a world of possibilities as we pave the way for cutting-edge advancements, foster growth through immersive learning experiences, and drive transformative changes in health care.

VHA Innovation Ecosystem (VHA IE) is the catalyst for enabling the discovery and spread of mission-driven health care innovation that exceeds expectations, restores hope, and builds trust within the Veteran community. VHA IE leverages the collective power of innovation champions from across VA, academia, non-profit and industry to operationalize innovation in the Nation's largest integrated health care system. This includes: Fellowships to develop health care leaders and Community Engagement to encourage collaborators across industries to accelerate innovation. One example is remote temperature monitoring for early identification of foot ulcers to prevent amputation.

The Simulation Learning, Evaluation, Assessment, and Research Network (SimLEARN) is the VHA's program for simulation in health care training. Serving the largest integrated health care system in the world, SimLEARN provides an ever-growing body of curricula and best practices that improve health care for our nation's Veterans. The use of innovative technologies in a safe learning environment enhances diagnostic, procedural and communication skills to support quality care and the best possible outcomes. One example is the Assessment, Collaboration and Outreach center which focuses on client centered education that is adaptable using simulation based training and best practices improving utilization of resources and minimizing cost.

The Center for Care and Payment Innovation enhances value for Veterans and VA by designing and testing new ways to deliver and pay for care that efficiently use resources and improve healthcare outcomes. CCPI partners with VA Health Care systems, VA Integrated Service Networks, VA program offices, and industry leaders in executing three core capabilities: Pilot programs; Strategy and Analytics.

Office of Advanced Manufacturing (OAM), where we lead the way in harnessing cutting-edge technologies such as 3D printing for health care applications. OAM provides an unprecedented and individualized approach in providing high quality, safe and effective innovative care to Veterans. Notable accomplishments to date include the establishment of an FDA-compliant Quality Management System, in-house production of patient-matched medical devices, and strategic collaborations with government agencies, academia, and industry partners to expedite the journey from promising product to clinical market.

VA Immersive is defining a new reality in Veteran health care by leading the nation in the clinical implementation of immersive technology and uncovering new ways to embrace employees' whole health. By engaging the senses of sight sound, and touch, immersive technology cultivates a new level of engagement to each Veteran's health care experience. For example, VA has now deployed more than 3,500 virtual reality (VR) headsets across more than 170 VA medical centers and outpatient clinics in all 50 U.S. states, Puerto Rico, Guam, and American Samoa—advancing VA's commitment to connecting Veterans to the soonest and best care. The program also engages with industry, academia, and other Government agencies to co-develop content and engineer devices that are beneficial for our Nation's Veterans.

Remember: BE THE ONE. Saving lives. Changing lives. One at a time.

VETS TOWN HALL

 STUDENT VETERANS OF AMERICA AT BRISTOL COMMUNITY COLLEGE  BRISTOL  Joseph A. Marshall Veterans Center

By Denny Cosmo, Legion Post 303

Bristol Community College is proud to host a Vets Town Hall, providing a unique platform for veterans to share their stories and experiences with the community. This event is scheduled for Saturday, April 19th at 10 AM at the VA Vet Center in Fairhaven, MA. All community members are welcome to attend, and advance registration is encouraged.

Vets Town Halls are designed to bridge the gap between veterans and civilians, fostering understanding and appreciation for the sacrifices made by those who have served in the military. These gatherings offer veterans a safe space to speak openly about their service, challenges, and triumphs, while also allowing the community to listen, learn, and express their gratitude.

The initiative, inspired by the belief that every veteran's story matters, aims to create a supportive environment where veterans can connect with others who have shared similar experiences. It also provides an opportunity for civilians to gain insight into the realities of military life, promoting empathy and solidarity.

Attendees can expect heartfelt and candid discussions, with veterans sharing personal anecdotes and reflections. The events are not only a chance to honor those who have served but also to build stronger, more informed communities. Wearing your American Legion, VFW, Marine Corps League, Disable American Veterans, or affiliated Auxiliaries member cap is highly encouraged.

These events are hosted by the Student Veterans of America chapter at Bristol Community College and the Master of Ceremonies will be U.S. Coast Guard Veteran Sarah McCaskey of American Legion Post 121. To participate in these meaningful events, please register in advance at Vets Town Halls. Your presence and support can make a significant difference in the lives of veterans and contribute to a more connected and understanding community. Here is the link to register: <https://forms.office.com/r/987YR96m9G>

You can follow Bristol student veterans and Vets Town Halls on social media at @bristolccveteranscenter and @vetstownhall. Post 279, during their weekly meat raffle paused to celebrate a huge birthday for Phyllis Gallant. Phyllis joined the post in 1957 when the Worcester All Women’s Post 419 closed.

She was born in Fall River, MA in 1921. She moved to Worcester at an early age and graduated from South High in 1941. After graduation, she trained to be a Licensed Practical Nurse at the former Holden Hospital for Nursing, graduating in 1943 at the height of World War II. She joined the WAVES of the U.S. Navy in 1944. She said “ I had to do something. My father was in the Navy in World War I. I had two uncles in the service, one in the Army and one in the Navy and an aunt in the Navy.” She served in the Hospital Corps in Norfolk, VA as a Pharmacist 3rd Class working as a corpsman on the wards, treating the wounded and injured soldiers returning from the war.

She not only helped treat the men’s wounds, but heal their souls by also serving as an entertainer. Phyllis was an acrobatic dancer. When the war was over she continued to serve the by treating them for another year before returning home.

When she got home she connected with an old friend and schoolmate Seymour Gallant, who had been serving in the Merchant Marines.

Most people recognize her as the petite carrier of the American Flag in the Memorial Day Parade for 50 years.

For 25 years she worked with the Auburn District Nurses taking blood pressures at the Senior Center. For the same 25 years she helped her son Stephen teaching students at the Mercy Center in Worcester to learn Square Dancing right up to the age of 81.

She was a volunteer at the St Joseph’s Thrift Shoppe for 10 years and sung in the St. Joseph’s choir for 30 years.

Phyllis has received the John E and Ethel E Riley Outstanding Citizen Award for 2002. Phyllis is in possession of the Boston Post Cane for being the oldest resident in Auburn. She still gets around with help of a walker, lives in her own home with the help of her daughter, Joan Gulick, and still gets up to the post on occasion to have a beer with the guys.

High school students who have completed their junior year are competitively selected and sponsored by American Legion Auxiliary units for this program, where they learn about the political process by electing officials for all levels of state government and actively running a mock government. The participants are assigned to mock cities and either the “Federalist Party” or “Nationalist Party.”

Assistance from dedicated ALA volunteers ensures the program’s nonpartisan governmental, patriotic, and civic objectives are carried out through interactive learning. Though the week is filled with many learning opportunities, there is always time for fun and the formation of long-term friendships.

Candidates should be keenly interested in government and current events, and show strong leadership abilities. Because the structure of state and local government varies, ALA Girls State programs may vary in content and method of procedure, but each adheres to the same basic core values.

American Legion Family attends the 91st annual Lincoln Pilgrimage in Illinois

If you were going to experience something unbelievably memorable, then you should consider going to the Lincoln Pilgrimage in Springfield, Illinois held on Abraham Lincoln's Birthday each year. The Department of Illinois has hosted the Lincoln Pilgrimage for 91 years. It's only two days of activities and remembrance as we gather to honor our 16th President, Abraham Lincoln. Springfield has over fifteen Lincoln-related museums, the tomb of our 16th President, and much more to visit. There is a lot more to do in Springfield than you can fit it into two days!

The Lincoln Pilgrimage in Springfield has been conducted by Post 32 every year since 1935, making it the longest running annual event honoring his birthday. "This annual pilgrimage is now an American Legion Family tradition, and one that would please President Lincoln were he to join us today. Our family is reunited once again," said Sons of The American Legion Squadron 32 Commander James Peters, Jr. The Detachment of Illinois hosted the Tuesday, February 11 reception with the National SAL Commander as the keynote speaker.

"Lincoln's promise to take care of our veterans is reflected in the great works of the Sons of The American Legion," Joseph Navarrete said. "The Sons' mission is to support our veterans, as well as their families. We have done so through record donations to the Veterans and Children Foundation and the Child Well-being Foundation."

Sons of The American Legion National Commander Joseph Navarrete said that the SAL is committed to delivering on Lincoln's legacy.

The Lincoln Pilgrimage hosting department is The American Legion Department of Illinois.

ARTICLE SUBMISSION GUIDELINES

Do you have an article or news announcement to share with the rest of the Department of Massachusetts? If so, please follow these basic guide-lines for submissions.

- Submit your text in Microsoft Word format (.doc) or as a text file (.txt or .rtf). Save your file as the same name as the article, so we can easily keep track of it. Be sure to make it clear who the author is, whether it's you or if you are just forwarding it to us. • WE LOVE ARTICLES WITH PHOTOS, or any other kind of images! Include photos and/or artwork for articles separately (NOT embed-ded in the article) as high resolution (300 dpi, or better) JPGs. Please name these files accordingly so we can track them along with your article. Let us know in your e-mail of any corresponding captions, and/or name of the photographer if necessary.

- Spell check everything! Especially people's names, web addresses, etc. You can help us greatly here by simply running your spell check function in your word processing program.

- E-mail everything directly to us at fmacdonald53@comcast.net no later than the 25th of every month for it to appear in the very next issue. This way we have plenty of time to work with in case we need to clarify anything with you.
